

Here is round two (two out of two) of my debate with Richard J. Bauckham join on the radio show “Unbelievable,” a weekly program aired on UK Premier Christian Radio and hosted by Justin Brierley. Richard was in the station’s London studio, I was on the phone. Here we pursue other issues related to whether the Gospels of the NT represent distorted memories or if, for the most part, they can be trusted to be reliable because they are based on eyewitness testimony. Richard and I disagree about the matter, as about oh so many other things!

Richard J. Bauckham is a prominent New Testament scholar and professor emeritus of New Testament studies at St. Mary’s College, University of St. Andrews, Scotland. He retired from teaching in 2007 to pursue his research and writing.

Please adjust gear icon for 1080p High-Definition:

Why Christianity Succeeded

The Death of Paul in Acts and Unrelated Topics: Readers' Mailbag April 29, 2016